

I am completely and utterly opposed to this BPL/PCL concept for all the obvious potential and actual interference concerns to both Professional and Ham Radio HF Services. In my humble opinion this concept has had nowhere near the thorough field testing before being unleashed on all who use the RF spectrum (including the Military, Astronomy, Business and Research fields).